An Historic and Record-Setting Meeting

The June, 2013, 70th Anniversary Reunion of Hickman High Class of 1943 was a first! No other class has held a 70th

They came from all over ... (the two most distant cities are 2,700 miles apart)

Twenty members of that great 1943 class came from across the country to renew friendships and ties in Columbia on June 7 and 8. Due to effects of World War II, the exact number of graduates is nebulous, but there are some 210-215 who could be counted legitimately in the '43 class.

Charles Willard, Fort Lauderdale, FL received the award for coming the farthest, although Virginia Douglass Hopper, from Garden Grove, CA might contest that. Anna Dean Ballew Teague journeyed from Mooresville, NC, Marjorie Jones Geist came from Worthington, OH, Elizabeth Itschner Elliot came from Godfrey, IL, John Loser came from Overland Park KS and O. D. Hawkins came from West Des Moines, IA.

From Columbia were: Bill and Helen Fenton Graves, Freda Griffin Humphreys, O. V. Wheeler, Ed Gibbs, Hilda Bozarth Moore, Violet Bennett Canole, Gene Armstrong and Robert Kemper.

Four Missourians came from points outside Columbia; David Berbert from Springfield, Hazel Tharpe Willett from Linn, Reba McCann Barnhart from West Plains and Joe Forsee all the way from Ashland (14 miles).

Editorially Speaking...

I'm sitting here thinking, "why am I doing this??" After all there are now only 67 classmates on the mailing list and the per piece cost of this little effort is most difficult to justify from a dollars and cents standpoint. So why ??

It could be that those 67 persons are still pretty dear to me, to each other, even though separated by time and space.

It could be that these friendships and remembrances can't be measured in dollars and cents.

It could be that there oughta be some tangible something to recognize and commemorate a 70th anniversary class reunion ... something no other Hickman class has done.

It could be that I really enjoy staying in touch. Maybe there are other "could be's,"

So, I have really, really enjoyed putting this issue together. As I have said several times before, I enjoy working on each issue of the '43 Kewpie Notes, but this one is a special one.

In a way, it was more difficult since I was trying to produce an issue to record a once in our lifetime event. Probably some other class will have a 70th, but we did it first!

So I hope the money is considered well spent and that readers will enjoy looking this over with just a small particle of the enjoyment I've had in putting it together.

Will there be more? I hope so. As long as my health and my mind hold out, we'll do our dernest!

... Joe Forsee

JEAN DALE HOURIGAN EDMUNDS sent a note expressing regret that she would not be able to attend the big 70th Anniversary Reunion, adding that she enjoys reading about her classmates in the '43 Kewpie Notes.

She and her husband, Edwin, live in Northport, NY, a Long Island suburb of New York City, moving there from Kirkwood, MO in 2006. A daughter lives nearby.

ELIZABETH ITSCHNER whom we all knew as "Itchy" in high school is now called "Betty." In making name tags for the reunion, we made one with "Elizabeth" and one with "Betty." It didn't make any difference which one she wore — we all called her "Itchy" anyway.

NORMA WOLFE WILLIS was hoping to make the Reunion, but her daughter, Mitzi, was unable to get off work to bring her. Coming from their home in Arizona is quite a trip, but Mitzi said they were going to do it.

Understandably, Norma was very disappointed, but sent her regards.

HELEN MAYO FITZGIBBONS sent greetings to '43 Kewpies and said she was sorry that she missed the reunion.

She lives in Silver Spring, MD and added that she enjoyed receiving the "43 Kewpie Notes and reading about "all of you."

Editor's note: Helen graduated at the end of our junior year and didn't walk across the graduation stage with us, but is still considered a "43 Kewpie." jbf

CAROL HALEY HOLT, sister of our classmate,

Betty Haley, asked if would be O.K. to come to the Saturday morning reunion breakfast at the mall especially to see Reba McCann Barnhart. Of course, the answer was, "of course."

It seems that Reba, being a friend of Betty's, was at their house a lot, and Carol was the little sister who was always underfoot.

JANET ROBERTS and JANETTE RUSSELL, daughter and granddaughter of classmate

Jerline Nichols, came to the reception time at the banquet to visit friends ... and ... had so much fun, they stayed for the entire evening.

Jerline attended nearly every, if not all, '43 Kewpie reunions until her death in 1993.

Editor's note: After I retired and moved back home, Jerline was the one who got me started coming to the third Monday Kewpie luncheons. jbf

ELEANOR SHARP MUSGROVE recently moved from Dearborn, MI to an assisted living facility in Ann Arbor, MI to be nearer her daughter. "She lives right down the road from me," her daughter, Jan, says, "She is doing well and sends her regards."

O. V. WHEELER was praised highly in a Columbia Daily Tribune editorial by Hank Waters on September 8, when he led off a lengthy column on Independently Guided Education. "Thirty years ago, I asked O. V. Wheeler whether independently guided education would work in all Columbia elementary schools. He said yes."

Later Waters commented, "O. V. Wheeler was a pioneer joined by too few followers."

Editor's note: O. V., as principal of Ridgeway elementary school, received national recognition for his innovative approaches. jbf

JAY ELLIOTT has moved from Illinois to Paradise, CA, after his wife, Dorothy's death in 2012. In a note expressing regret about not making it to the 70th anniversary, he said he has been busy visiting friends and relatives in the area.

He has renewed friendship with a lady that he had not seen for 67 years.

ETHELYN FUNK BODDY in sending a memorial gift for Charlotte Slaughter Terwilliger and Naoma Powell, commented, "we three worked on art projects sometimes during art class and both of them contributed to my HS education."

She commented that "Naoma was Naoma for all her life, but I called her "Naomi." While I frequently saw her name in print, it always translated in my head to "Naomi."

"But, Naoma, being Naoma, never told me I was wrong."

Ethelyn added that her daughter insisted on the full complement of 88 candles for her birthday cake, but Ethelyn said she didn't want the cake to melt while she accumulated enough breath, so the candles should go on something else.

VIOLET BENNETT CANOLE underwent surgery on her neck in July and is recovering nicely. She says some of her motor skills are affected, but improving. "I'll be at the Kewpie luncheon one of these days."

FRANCES ARMSTRONG CORCORAN visited friends and relatives in Columbia last December and January, but didn't make it back to the reunion.

In a note, she said, "Do enjoy your Kewpie Notes publication so want to keep it coming."

GENE HOLLY said the wild fires raging about Palm Springs, CA last July did not reach his home.

"Fortunately, for us, the fire started on the west side of the San Jacinto mountain (the rainy side) and did not extend down the east side (our side).

"I have lots of ash in the yard an in the pool. Big clean-up jobs."

Friday afternoon get-together was at Freda’s house

The first gathering of the 1943 Kewpie reunion was at Bob and Freda Humphrey’s home where lots of hugs freely given

As they have done several times in the past, Bob and Freda hosted an opening reception for the record-setting 70th Anniversary Reunion of that great Kewpie class of 1943; a place where classmates could gather, renew friendships and exchange memories in an informal setting in their spacious home and around their patio and pool.

Food and drinks were plentiful, although probably not many knew what they were consuming, so excited were they at seeing each other again. After a few hours, the group traveled on to D. Rowe’s restaurant for the evening banquet. The next morning a “going away” breakfast was held in the food court of the Columbia Mall.

No plans were made for a 75th.

The Big 70th was recorded for posterity

JOHN LOSER shows Anna Dean a picture from the 1943 Cresset as others catch up on what’s been happening and probably comparing aches and pains and steel hips.

LOTS OF GOOD FOOD made it difficult to make a selection. Above, Edy Hulett Rodgers (Gibbs), Helen Fenton Graves and Reba McCann Barnhart discuss the situation.

The video aired on the 6:00 pm news on Monday, June 10. It can be viewed on your computer by taking the following steps:

- Go to: www.kewpie.net (Charley Blackmore’s Kewpie site)
- Click on Welcome to “Kewpie Gathering place”
- Scroll to the line starting, “Class of 1943”
- Click on “1st 70th Reunion” for Tribune story
- At the end of the line, click on “video” for KOMUtv news script
- Click on the picture for live video, click on the arrow to activate, it starts after the commercial

The Friday Evening Banquet was at D. Rowe's

Everyone said ... no program! ... we just want to visit.

So at the evening banquet a D. Rowe's the only program was passing the mike around and folks telling of what had been (and is) going on in their lives.

(Mostly talking about children and grandchildren.)

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE ... '43 Kewpies joined in when Kewpie cheerleaders provided several yells for one of the evening's highlights. Clockwise around the table in the foreground are Violet Bennett Canole (in red), Virginia Douglass Hopper, O. D and Muriel Hawkins, Charles and Hallie Willard.

At the back table are Gene Armstrong (in red), Doris Barnhart, Robert and Betty Kemper, Bill and Helen Graves and Hilda Bozarth Moore.

O. V. WHEELER brought a portion of his collection of Kewpie memorabilia which was thoroughly viewed and enjoyed.

Below Helen Fenton Graves and Oleta Forsee

HICKMAN HIGH ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, BRUCE WHITESIDES, visited the alums at the reception, passed on Kewpie key fobs and best wishes.

At Saturday Going Away Breakfast

Without CHARLEY BLACKMORE, Hickman, 1963, the reunion would not have been the success we think it was. He played a most important role.

In touch with him through the process, Charley contacted media outlets, was present at every event, took pictures and very importantly, supplied the sound equipment at the banquet. (After all, we oldsters need hearing help.)

So from all of us in that great 1943 Kewpie class...THANKS!

FOOD COURT AT COLUMBIA MALL

was the setting for a very informal breakfast and just sitting around and gabbin'. A row of tables was arranged for seating and getting' up and movin' around and sitting down again.

Probably everybody talked to every one else. Saying Goodbye was a bit difficult!

Clockwise: O. D. Hawkins, Edy Hulett Rodgers (Gibbs), Ed Gibbs, Charles Willard, Helen and Bill Graves

Clockwise, Oleta Forsee (bending over) Hilda Bozarth Moore, Bill Graves, Fred Griffin Humphreys, Betty Kemper, Violet Bennett Canole, David Berbert, O. V. Wheeler and Robert Kemper.

Ed Gibbs and Anna Dean Ballew Teague

Reba is surprised by Betty Haley's little sister, Carol, while Robert Kemper and Itchy look on.

WE HAD TO LEAVE, BUT REALLY DIDN'T WANT TO

Preparing to depart are: Hallie and Charles Willard, Hilda Bozarth Moore, Jann Peck, Anna Dean Ballew Teague, O.V. and Ginger Wheeler, and at far right, O. D. Hawkins

Significant and Important

In addition to the graduates and children "enablers," there were others who were present and played a most important role ....

- Ginger Wheeler (O.V.)
- Bob Humphreys (Freda)
- Oleta Forsee (Joe)
- Hallie Willard (Charles)
- Edy Rodgers (Gibbs)
- Muriel Hawkins (O.D.)
- Betty Kemper (Robert)
- and Gene Armstrong's special friend*
- Doris Barnhart

Thank You! Thank You!
Thank You!

The Enablers — without them the big 70th would not have happened

Children of the Hickman class of '43 enabled the 70th Anniversary Reunion to happen.

Without them bringing their parents, the event could not have occurred.

Mark Barnhart (Reba McCann Barnhart)

Charmae Barone (Charles Willard)

Lesley Widger (Elizabeth Itschner Elliot)

Lisa Gibson (Violet Bennett Canole)

Mark Hawkins, (O.D Hawkins)

Jann Peck, (Anna Dean Ballew Teague)

Annie Gibbs Fiore and Scott Gibbs

(Ed Gibbs)

Terry Willard (Charles Willard)

As was Jan Holden, Hilda Bozarth Moore's daughter in right inset.
