Classmate From Arizona Attends '43 Kewpie Lunch

Traveling a considerable distance, Norma Wolfe Willis attended the July 3rd Monday luncheon of that great Hickman High class of '43. She lives in Sun City, AZ with her daughter, Mitzi Bartolos, who brought Norma and her brother, Nelson Wolfe, to Columbia to visit friends and relatives. She made sure the visit included the luncheon. Below is a picture of the group attending.

should that great 1943 Kewpie Class have a 70th anniversary reunion ??

We graduated from Hickman in May, 1943. Next May, 2013, will make 70 years since that memorable event!

In asking around, we can't find that any Hickman class has held a 70th anniversary reunion. Should we be the first??

Sounds good, but that will make most of us in the 86, 87, 88 or so age bracket — if we make it that far!

Possibly, that's not a good age for traveling. That also means the local host committee folks possibly might not have the energy and get-up-and-go that they used to have.

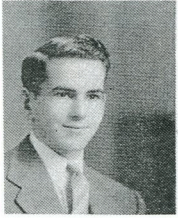

But, someone recently said, "we don't have to do as much as we have before. We just want to sit and visit."

So, whaddayathink? Would you be interested in coming to a "toned down" get-together. And, what type of get-together would that be? Your opinions are requested.

Enclosed with this issue is an already addressed and already stamped postcard. Would you please use the card to let us know what you think ... and drop it in the mail box?

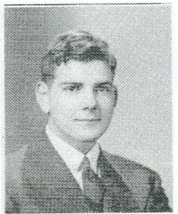

This would give us local folks some very helpful guidance. Thanks!

In Memoriam

Charles Merideth

died June 18, 2012 at age 86. He served in the Navy during World War II and worked as a meat cutter for 46 years. He is survived by six children, four stepchildren, two brothers and one sister. His first wife, Jean, died after a marriage of 38 years. He later married Mary Alice Simon and she also preceded him in death.

Spencer Wegener

died September 25, 2012 at age 86. He served in World War II in the Phillipines and Japan. He was a farmer. He is survived by his wife, Shirley, two sons and three grandchildren. A sister, Leah, died earlier.

Virgil Moore, '41 Kewpie and husband of '43 classmate, Hilda Bozarth Moore, died June 12, 2012 at age 89 in Columbia. He served in the Army Air Force during World War II. After his plane was shot down, he was a prisoner of war for 14 months. In another 25 days they would have been married 67 years. He retired from the U. S. Postal Service.

Gerald (Jerry) Brueckner, '44 Kewpie and husband of '43 classmate, Betty Joyce Forbis Brueckner, died July 23, 2012. He was 86. In World War II he served in the Navy and in the Army during the Korean Conflict. He retired from the Falstaff Central Distributing Company in Sedalia. They were married for 59 years and lived at the Lake of the Ozarks.

Dorothy Elliott, 83 years old, died August 20, 2012 in DeKalb, IL. She was the wife of '43 classmate, Jay Elliott. She and Jay married in 1980 after both of their former spouses had died. With Jay, she attended many '43 Kewpie meetings.

James Terrian, 90, brother of '43 classmate, Gloria Terrian List, died September 11, 2012. He worked for ABF Trucking in Chicago and enjoyed traveling, reading, playing bridge and the St. Louis Cardinals. He is survived by his sister and two nieces.

Elizabeth Douglass Windmiller, sister of '43 classmate, Virginia Douglass Hopper, died April 23, 2012. She was 97 years old.

Editorially Speaking...

As usual, I had a lot of fun putting this issue together. Also, as usual, playing around with pictures, articles and other items from our ever-more-distant past brought back many, many memories.

Who knows? Maybe that's what it's all about.

Certainly, we can't live in the past, but, in my opinion, it's not healthy to discard it either. We lived in historic times and maybe that contributed to our unity and uniqueness.

I guess one of the main topics on the table is whether to attempt to have another '43 Kewpie reunion.

To be the only Hickman class to conduct a 70th would be interesting. If held, it would probably be sometime next summer.

On the other hand — are we up to it?

Whaddayathink?

Your opinion is valuable and important.

There is an already addressed, already stamped postcard inserted into this issue.

All you need to do is to jot down your thoughts and mail it back.

Please!

Several '43 Kewpies were members of the Sea Scout Ship Tribune and their dates attended many events

Articles from old (real old) editions of the Tribune indicated that the Sea Scout Ship Tribune held a hayride and a dance.

Those attending included Reba McCann, Marciele Mueller, Jean Hourigan, Elizabeth Itschner, Dave Berbert, Joe Forsee, Robert Kemper, Jack Rodenbaugh, John Loser, Ed Dulaney, and John Silkett.

John Loser and Dave Berbert were in charge of arrangements for the hayride and weiner roast.

Editor's note: Many other '43 Kewpies were listed, but only those still living are named above. jbf

MISCELLANY

MARY CLAYWELL GOLLAHER: Had eye surgery. Didn't know many of the people on the front page of the last Kewpie Notes. Had to look inside.

MARJORIE JONES GEIST: Took her daughter with her to attend the dinner for volunteers at the Ohio State University Medical Center. It was her daughter's birthday.

DAN MILLER: ...and I move very slowly these days.

After Junior year, classmate Betty Haley left for California, graduated there

While on a recent bus tour, Carol Haley Holt, '54 Kewpie, asked Joe Forsee if he had worked at the Tribune. In the ensuing conversation, Joe remarked that he had graduated with a Betty Haley. Carol replied that Betty was her sister.

Betty Haley

But Forsee was wrong! Betty went to California for her senior year and graduated from Santa Maria High School.

She married '41 Kewpie, Bill Winn, had two children and visited Columbia often with her family, according to her sister, Carol.

She died in 1997. Bill died in 1989.

'43 Kewpie classmate, Kenneth Winn, also went to California after graduation, taught in public schools, never married and died in Aptos, CA.

Re: Special Needs Fund

When making arrangements after Charles Meridith died, his children listed the Betty Jacobs Aufranc Special Needs Fund as a place where memorials to him could be made.

A goodly amount was received and Kay Garnatz, administrator of the fund at Hickman High, said the money was being put to good use, providing assistance to Hickman students who have special needs.

Ms. Garnatz added that in the present economic situation, the fund is of special value.

Bill Graves and Joe Forsee Were On Honor Flight in early July

On July 3, '43 Kewpies Bill Graves and Joe Forsee flew to Washington, D.C. on the nationwide program on taking World II veterans to see "their" memorial in the nation's capital.

It was a long day! The group met at midnight on July 2, rode busses to St. Louis where they boarded a commercial flight to BWI (Baltimore-Washington International airport).

On busses with a police escort, the group viewed the World War II Memorial, the Korean and Vietnam Memorials, attended the changing of the guard ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown at Arlington National Cemetery, the Women in War Memorial, the Marine Corps War Memorial, the Air Force Memorial and a special presentation by the Old Guard at Fort Meyers, Virginia.

They left BWI in late evening and flew to St. Louis where they boarded busses for the return trip to Columbia. From Kingdom City to Columbia, they were escorted by some 950 motorcycles passing on both sides of the busses on the closed down I-70 highway.

Reaching the Marriott Hotel around 1:00 a.m. on July 4, they were greeted by a huge welcoming crowd. With the exception of cat naps on planes and busses, they had been up some 25-26-27 hours.

Editor's note: Bill Graves was in the Marines, fighting on Iwo Jima when the noted photograph was taken of the Marines raising the flag on Mt. Suribachi. He could be excused if his eyes became a bit moist at the Marine Memorial. jbf

Editor's note #2: At the risk of leaving someone out and extending apologies in advance, other '43 Kewpies who have gone on Honor Flights are: Ed Gibbs, Archie Sapp, O. V. Wheeler and Violet Bennett. Please let me know of any I have not listed. jbf

Above, Joe Forsee and Bill Graves pose in front of the Missouri pillar in the World War II Memorial on the mall in Washington, D. C. on July 3. Both served in WWII and also in the Korean Conflict.

ON THIS AND THE NEXT TWO PAGES are pictures of the 1943 class reunions of 1968, 1978, 1988, and 1998.

Pictures of the class reunions of 1963, 1973, 1983, 1993 and 2003 were printed in the March, 2011 edition of the '43 Kewpie Notes

IT IS WELL NIGH IMPOSSIBLE to provide names for group pictures such as these. Perhaps the reader will be able to recognize many of the folks in the crowd. In the picture above, we had been out of school only 25 years so we had not changed too much. In the picture below, we're starting to gain some white hair, a few wrinkles and perhaps even a bit of weight around the middle. But I betcha you remember more than you think. jbf

Through the influence and enthusiasm of Betty Jacobs (Aufranc) the David H. Hickman High School class of 1943 has conducted 12 Class Reunions

As Charlie Merideth remarked one time, "Betty was the glue that held us together."

Because she had the interest and the ability, the 1943 Hickman class has conducted 12 class reunions as well as class additional outings in California, at the Lake of the Ozarks and on a cruise ship.

As another person said, "Every class needs a Betty Jacobs." Betty's note re the 1957 get-together indicated that over one-half of the 1943 class attended. With a graduation number of some 200-plus, over 100 class members would have been present, making it the largest attendance at a reunion.

Not surprisingly, the numbers in the chart at right have diminished considerably.

On the current mailing list there are 81 class members. Your opinions on whether to attempt a 70th anniversary reunion in 2013 are requested. Please comment and return the self-addressed post card enclosed with this issue.

Who are these folk?

From the "miscellaneous" photo file, circa, the middle 1940s, are five '43 Kewpie classmates.

Can you figure out who they are?

THE PURPLE AND GOLD

DAVID H. HICKMAN HIGH SCHOOL

In the summer of 2007, fortunately I obtained all the Purple and Gold newspapers for each of the years the '43 class was in Hickman.

They were saved by Eleanor Ewing Blanchard and after her death given to Reba McCann Barnhart who gave them to Betty Jacobs Aufranc who gave them to the Boone County Historical Society.

Since they are too fragile to be archived they were given to me. Below are some items which may be of interest. (jbf)

January Birthdays

- 3 — Norman Silberstein
- 5 — Archie Sapp
Lee Jo Swafford
- 18 — Joyce Spencer
- 21 — David Berbert
- 24 — Dan Miller

O. V. Wheeler and his parents visited O.V.'s brother, Howell, in Norfolk, VA during the holidays. He is in the Navy.

While in Oklahoma, Marjorie Jones attended a Rugby football game played by English students at an Aeronautic School.

Norman Silberstein reviewed the movie, "How Green Was My Valley," for the Junior-Senior Dramatics Club.

Hickman basketball team defeated Centralia High School, 32-18. Playing on the team was O. D. Hawkins.

At the beginning of the assembly program, Anna Dean Ballew sang "White Cliffs of Dover" and "Stout Hearted Men."

Editor's Note

The notes above were excerpted from the January, 1942 issue of the Purple and Gold, the first issue after Pearl Harbor.

'43 Kewpies remember the all-school assembly on December 8, when we heard President Roosevelt's historic message to Congress; "Yesterday, December 7, 1941a date which will live in infamy...." jbf
