Betty Jane Jacobs Aufranc, '43 Kewpie, 1926 — 2006

She was the glue
that held us together

Every class needs a
Betty Jacobs

She was so peppy. I knew she would be a good cheerleader

She's the reason we're here
(at the monthly luncheon)

It was Betty's wish to be cremated and to not have a funeral.

*On Thursday, May 18, a Celebration of her Life was held by her family at the Atkins-Holman Student
Commons on the campus of Columbia College from 4 to 7 pm.*

Friends came from far and near to celebrate her contributions.

Mementos, pictures and a power point slide presentation depicted her in various activities.

Helper

Editorially Speaking...

One will note that the front page of this issue is a bit unusual — the whole thing is about one person.

Unusual? Yes! It's never happened before while this helper has been helping on this '43 Kewpie newsletter. It probably will never happen again.

But, in my humble opinion, as well as in other people's with whom I consulted, Betty Jane Jacobs Aufranc was a special person among the David H. Hickman class of 1943.

As more than a few have commented, "she's the glue that held us together."

Without her constant, untiring enthusiasm in compiling information about us, organizing the reunions, sending out newsletters, just "keeping in touch," things would not have happened. Our class compares very favorably with others in maintaining this invisible and somewhat mystical bond of high school friendships.

So the entire front page is dedicated to her, unapologetically.

Responding to several inquiries, elsewhere in this epistle are a few "stats" about our class according to the information I inherited by default.

When Betty moved, she turned over the treasury and a whole bunch of material since, she said, I was doing the newsletter. So, on the handy-dandy computer, I entered addresses, etc.

Please, please send any corrections, changes, pictures and I'll do my durnedest to keep it up to date.

Also, I would appreciate your comments, suggestions on this newsletter or possible future ones.

Thanks.

On Betty and Curt's marriage certificate were listed her bridesmaids; two '43 classmates, Joyce Spencer and Ruth Kurtz Portell.

Wonder if '43 Kewpies Qualify as "Old Geezers?"

OWANNA BOOTH ALLEN said that her home suffered no damage from the two tornadoes that struck Springfield, IL in April. "Just no power for several hours."

"Cloudy and overcast days are hard on my asthma and I'm looking forward to warm weather so I can get out and "play" in the yard soon."

FRIEDA CATHEY WILLIS flew to Houston in May to spend some time with daughter, granddaughter and great granddaughter.

BOB DeLONG and wife, Joy, spent the month of May in Seattle visiting the wife of a Marine Corps buddy and to "visit some of our kids along the way."

KATIE JO CARLTON SHAUGHNESSY and husband Bill celebrated 60 years of married life together, adding that her folks said it wouldn't last.

She is on the '43 Kewpie e-mailers list and keeps in touch although she says she types with only one finger due to some physical difficulties in her hand.

She and Ruth Yates Sappenfield, both Floridians, talk "about twice a week."

JEANNE HEIBEL SMALL and her husband, Rufus, have moved back to St. Louis Missouri from Florida. This spring they were house searching.

JACK RODENBAUGH lives in Pascagoula, MS having retired from a career as a Chemical Engineer. He and wife, Bobbie, have four sons.

EVELYN ACTON FENTON writes that along with everything else, she has peripheral neuropathy and walks very slowly, with a cane. She adds, "we have two great sons and two fantastic grandchildren."

GENE HOLLY e-mails that he had dinner with Jim Schoeck and "his lovely new wife" in April, adding that Jim and his wife are living part time in California and in Oregon.

JOHN LOSER and wife, June, moved back to the Kansas City area from Arizona in March. He's in good health, he says, but presently walking with a limp due to breaking a bone in his left foot at Easter while at his granddaughter's home in Gardner, KS. He had been riding his bicycle 5-7 miles daily.

EDITH (TOOKIE) GERMANE HURD says her kids insisted that she "slow down" a bit and now she receives only friends and former guests at her B & B on Nantucket Island.

Saying They're Too Young to Sit Still, Several '43 Kewpies Still On the Job

POLLY STRANGE DUNAVANT is employed by the City of Columbia teaching Art at Paquin Towers.

NORMA WOLFE WILLIS visits patients as a Certified Nursing Assistant in the Nashville, TN area.

PAM NEWKIRK MARKL works full time as a book-keeper for an automobile dealer in Fort Worth, TX.

HAZEL THARPE WILLETT is still on the job as an administrative assistant to a Missouri state legislator.

JOELLA SAPP HENRY stays busy working at Strawberry Hill Farms, a flower-vegetable enterprise just south of Columbia owned by her daughter.

Fred Krusekopf Locates Harry Johnson, But Is Too Late

Making it a long-time personal mission, Fred Krusekopf utilized many avenues, persistently encountering dead ends, but finally locating '43 Kewpie Harry Johnson last March. However, Harry had died almost six years previously.

Merchant Marine in 1940s

In 1960s

In 1990s

"Harry's tired, very enlarged heart gave out July 28, 2000," writes his wife, Elizabeth. He had undergone open-heart surgery in 1973.

After serving in the Merchant Marines in World War II, he graduated from Austin College in Sherman, TX, and later from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

He served several churches in Texas as well as the national Presbyterian Assembly and the National Council of Churches.

He retired as full-time pastor in Edna, TX in 1994, later moving to Tyler, TX.

MARY CLAYWELL GOLLAHER and husband,

JOE missed going Florida this past winter for the first time in 23 years. Joe has problems with neuropathy which makes it difficult to walk.

NORMA WOLFE WILLIS said she was lucky that her home was spared by the damaging tornados which hit the Nashville, TN area last April. Some patio chairs were tossed around, but the big damage was a short distance away.

SPENCER WEGENER was in the hospital for three weeks last summer from serious complications from a tick bite. He was in a coma for a week and a half. Doctors had difficulty diagnosing the illness since it is somewhat rare. He says he's O.K. now.

JAMES RUSSELL COATS has moved back to Columbia after living in Mississippi for many years. His Columbia telephone number is listed on the mailing list, but at press time, this "helper" was unable to contact him for his Columbia address. Incidentally, he was at the Celebration of Life for Betty Jacobs Aulf. Looks great!

ED DULANEY didn't have a good Easter weekend. His implanted defibrillator developed a short on Good Friday. It was Easter morning before they could get it under control and a new one implanted on Monday. "Old thumper was upset by the delay, but I am still plugging away and getting better day by day."

Charles Willard was in town for his brother's funeral in February. Again, his presence was an excuse for '43 Kewpies to eat lunch together.

Also there were: Charles Merideth, Ginger and O. V. Wheeler, Lorene Bangert Emmerson, Polly Strange Dunavant, Edie Hulet, Ed Gibbs, Helen and Bill Graves, and Oleta and Joe Forsee.

Is it 198? Or 214? Or Something Else?

How Many Were in our 1943 Graduating Class

It's Really Difficult to Say — It's How One Defines "In"

How many persons were in the 1943 Hickman High School graduating class?

It's not so easy to answer. It depends on ones' definition of "in."

Listed on the 1943 graduation program of May 28, 1943 are 198 names. That should be it — right?

Oops, not so fast!

Remember this was at the height of World War II and lots of lives were upset. Normalcy was unknown.

Several of our classmates left before graduation exercises for the service. Certainly they should be counted in our class even though their names aren't on the list.

Additionally, there are several more who went through all of, or parts of, grade school, Jeff Junior, Hickman with us and were elsewhere during our senior year maybe moved, went to a different school. Whatever.

Even if not listed, we still consider them part of that great '43 class.

So on the present mailing list, there are 117 people.

On the list of those who have died are 82.

On the address unknown list are 15 persons.

Hmmmm — that adds up to 214. Is that figure as good as any?

Any comments, opinions, etc.???

KEWPIES ON THE WEB

One of, if not the, most complete collections of Kewpie information, pictures and memories can be found on the web at: www.kewpie.net. A link will even take you to your picture from the 1943 Cresset.

The site was originated and is maintained by Charles Blackmore, Hickman '63.

LUNCH EVERY 3RD MONDAY

'43 Kewpies get together for lunch at noon every third Monday for gabbin' and braggin' at the Columbia Senior Center on Business Loop 70.

The food isn't gourmet, but it's substantial and the price is right — $4.00.

Come join us!

Who Are These People
At the Kewpie Reunion
In 1973

This picture was printed in the last issue of '43 Kewpie Notes: Later there were several inquiries asking, essentially, Who's Who? So, it might be fun to make a list of numbers from 1 to 70 and see if you can put a name with each number. This has been done at the monthly '43 Kewpie luncheon but no one could come up with everybody. Hint: Number 1 is A. J. Baker and Number 70 is Charlie Merideth. Only 68 more to go. The reunion was held August 4, 1973 at the Holiday Inn West in Columbia. A patio-pool party started festivities at 2:00 pm. Social hour was at 6:30. This picture was taken at 7:15 on the patio. Dinner, dancing, etc., etc., started at 7:30. The cost was $12.50 per person and that included the picture. Thirty years after graduation, these folks looked mighty spry!

62 Years Together

Joella Sapp Henry and husband, Donald, were married June 2, 1944 and are celebrating their 62nd Anniversary this month.

They are parents of one daughter, Joyce Sapp and have two granddaughters and two great granddaughters.

Just before last Christmas, Reba McCann Barnhart visited Columbia and a bunch of '43 Kewpies got together with her for lunch at the Columbia Senior Center. Front row are, left to right: Ginger Wheeler, Lorene Bangert Emmerson, Reba, Cora Lee Stephenson Cragin and Joe Cragin. Back row: Joe Forsee, Polly Dunavant, Edie Hulet (Hickman '41), Ed Gibbs, Doris Barnhart (no relation to Reba's husband) and Gene Armstrong. At right are Reba and Elizabeth Itschner Elliott at Itchy's birthday party. (Probably 80th)

Although some of us don't buy green bananas, we can still make plans to attend...

65th Reunion is Scheduled for 2008
